ABOUT ME

A guy that is average yet surpassed every life challenges and still continuing, my name is Chevelle Nacionales , a 16 year old whose got interest into programming. Im also into cinematic video editing and it's my side skill but not really that good. friendly attitude if the person is the same as me.

The short story about me landing to programming was me thinking to choose between comp prog or comp service , but i did a research about the difference between them on which one is better for stable wealth and has higher potential opportunities.

finally chose prog because its also part of technology and i like them even i dont understand them at the first time. and now at the present taking the programming path from senior and through college in the future ofcourse.
